

TRAINING ON :
FOOD SAFETY CERTIFICATION AND LICENSING

2-3 OCTOBER 2018
Klang Valley

INTRODUCTION

Food Safety and Quality Division (FSQD), Ministry of Health Malaysia (MOH) was established to strengthen the activities of planning, implementing, monitoring and evaluating the FSQ Program as its main objective is to protect the public against health hazards and fraud along the food supply chain. The activities conducted can facilitate food trade domestically, export purposes and importation of foods.

Therefore, to achieve this goal, the FSQD offers a variety of certification and licensing to ensure food industries prioritize their commitment towards producing safe food. In this training, participants will be exposed to all type of certification and licensing available under the FSQD, hence subsequently may induce their product marketability and sustainability.

This training may work as a platform to offer guidance for food industries and shall help in promoting, developing and enhancing awareness of the current licensing and certification requirement from the Ministry of Health.
